

Two Mountains District Fall Camporee Wilderness Survival October 9-11, 2015 Earn the Wilderness Survival Merit Badge

- Learn multiple techniques to start fires.
- Work on lashings for survival shelter.
- Sleep in a survival shelter with you patrol Saturday Night.
- Play multi patrol game of man hunt after the campfire program.
- Learn and use multiple methods to gain attention when lost in the wilderness.
- Work on multiple survival scenarios. – Snowy Conditions, Windy Conditions, Desert Conditions
- Patrol Desert Contest
- See below for pre-requisites.
- No meals are provided this weekend. Patrols should prepare their own meals.

Cost is $10 per Scout and per Adult on or before October 3. $15 per Scout and Adult after October 3.

Schedule:

Friday

8:30 Senior Patrol Leader Meeting

Saturday

8:15 Opening

8:45-12:30 Round Robin Sessions

12:30-2:30 Lunch – On Own in Campsite

2:30-4:45 Continue Round Robin Sessions

4:45-7:00 Dinner – On Own in Campsite

7PM Desert Contest Submissions

7PM Scout's Own Service followed by Campfire Program

8:30PM Man Hunt followed by sleeping in your Survival Shelter

Sunday: Turn in sheet for Merit Badge signatures then depart by 12:00

Prerequisites:

- Bring items for a personal survival kit and be prepared to put together and explain how each item in it could be useful (Requirement #5)
- Bring 3 fire starting tools other than matches (Requirement #6)
- Bring rope for lashings (to build a shelter – Requirement #8)
- Bring ingredients for Desert Contest.

Rules for Desert Contest:

- The desert must be made on an open fire. As an example you could use a Dutch Oven but that is not required. Do not use a camp stove to prepare the desert.
- Only bring 1 serving to be judged and enjoy the rest with your patrol.